FLANNERY FAMILY UPDATE

The Flannery family has returned to their home in Milan. Northern Italy has entered its 6th "red zone" since the start of the virus. Basically this means that at least through Easter, they can only exit their home to go to the local store, pharmacy, essential job or for emergency reasons. Please pray for them as they settle back into life in Italy.

They have been able to visit potentially a new partnership church. Everyone was welcoming and kind.
